In the Park

It is a fine day. There are fourteen people in the park.

Sam is thin. He has short hair and small eyes. He is wearing a yellow T-shirt and blue shorts. He is riding a bicycle on the path.

Kelly is thin. She has long hair and big eyes. She is in the pool. She is swimming.

The girls are tall. They have long hair and big eyes. They are sitting on the bench. They are reading.

Ann and Ken are tall and thin. Ann has long hair and big eyes. Ken has short hair and a small mouth. They are in the playground. They are playing on the swings.

The children are playing in the park. They take turns to play. They are very happy.

Teacher's comment: Very good flow of your writing, Sally! You can describe the people in the park well with the proper use of adjectives! Well done 😊
