

Name: Yeung Tsz Hin, Robi

Class: 6B Group 2

A monster and Mark

Once upon a time, a man was as strong as an ox. His name is Mark. Some girls admired Mark a lot.

One evening, the sky was getting dark. A monster came out of a cave and the monster wanted to eat people. The monster saw a woman and a little boy, the monster chased them and said “I am hungry!”, they ran fast because they did not want to die. The monster was tired and it did not see the woman and the little boy so it went back to its cave.

The woman told Mark about the monster. Mark was brave and went to the cave with the woman. The woman said “there is the cave where the monster lives”. Mark asked the woman “how big is the monster?” “It is as big as a horse.” Mark felt scared and stayed outside of the cave. Suddenly, the monster shouted angrily and said “I am hungry! I want food!” Mark said “I have some food. It is good. You can eat all.” Mark also had a bottle of magic water and gave it to the monster to drink. After a while, the monster turned into an angel and the monster was polite. Mark was proud of himself. The woman was also proud of Mark.

Teacher's comment: The plot of the story was great! Keep it up!